Vineyards - Freedom Hill Vineyard

Freedom Hill Vineyard is located in a slightly more remote location, further south than the Eola-Amity Hills, yet in an area with a clusters of vineyards of exception well worth the detour. The latest addition to the portfolio, the 2018 Freedom Hill Vineyard should be summarized as refined. A beautiful expression of Pinot Noir which dances between red and black fruit notes, yet with great tension and long and linear finish. This completes to line up nicely and leaves one wanting another glass.

Tasting Notes

This strong, elegant Pinot Noir is packed with dark fruits such as black cherry and plum with a touch of blueberry. The aromatic nose of dark fruits is layered with leather, earth and sweet baking spice. The palate is rich and dense with a fresh acidity and lingering finish.
